ANNUAL HIGH SCHOOL TOURNA-MENT FOR YEAR

Great Interscholastic Meet to be Held on Stoll Field May 7, 8, 9, Under Auspices of the Athletic Association.

200 INSTITUTIONS TO ENTER

The athletic authoritles of the University have practically completed arrangements for holding in Lexington this spring what promises to be vilie to meet Central University in tribute of respect and devotion to the opening to be followed by a like the biggest high school tournament ever held in Kentucky. Two hundred high schools with a total enrollment bating championship, State now being home, corner of Rose Street and Co-beautiful gold medal, given by Dr. J. they cleaned the faculty team from have been invited to take part and it is expected that a majority of these schools will be represented.

The tournament is the outgrowth of a movement fostered by the University which took definite shape on Noat the Phoenix Hotel of the Kentucky Interscholastic Association. The pur- winners over Georgetown. pose of this organization is the development and regulation of all high school activities; particularly in athietles, music and ail forms of public speaking. At this meeting a constitution was adopted, the State divided into nine high school districts, each with a center or capital, presided over by a vice-president, and the following Brumage, and secretary, Charles P. Weaver, both of the University of Kentucky.

"Within the Law."

As the attraction at the Ben Aii on ext Friday and Saturday, with Saturday matinee, the Americaa Play Com pany will present Itayard Vieller's thrilling new American drama, "Withla the Law."

"Withia the Law," which exerts an almost irresistible appeal, is aptly de scribed as a drama of daring in which the herolae is forced to begin warfare upon the law to protect herseif from its machinations. Mary Turaer, the entral character, is falsely accused of theft of goods from the establishment In which she is employed, and sentenced to three years imprisonment. No amount of protest, no amount of iogical, obviously truthful defense saves her. She serves her time. She tries to support herself honestly afterwnrd, but the police harass aad 'hound" her. When they have forced her out of several places by recalling her imprisonment, the girl, ia desperation, defies them, and proclalars that as they have compelled her to a career of crime she will bent them, and stay "within the law," too.

JUST BASE BALL.

Real work has been ladulged in this week and the mea have been showlag up weii. Short practice games were played on both Tuesday and Wednes day evealags and for a time the field presented a geaulae base ball appear-

The field is being rolled and the low places filled up and la many ways greatly improved. It is hoped good weather will contlave uatil the field becomes thoroughly worked over aad settled. The cadets aroved the foot ball bleachers as usual and aow we have seats on both the first and third base lines.

The first game one week off leaves only a short time for final preparation Maryville College, from Maryville, Tenn., opens the season for the Wildcats. The Teanessee boys have been putting out a first class team and a good close game is expected.

The first year material trying onl for the team shows up well. Waters and Vaughn are two clever infielders them. Thomas and Grubbs are showing no well to the box. Gumbert in the outfield looks good.

The members of the Almani are ask ng for a base ball game for the commencement time. Every effort has been made to schedule a game with ome good college team but at presen It looks impossible. It is quite likely that the members of the Varsity squad will be held over nad a game played with an Alumni team. Many of the old base ball players five nearby and will be here and a very good team can be made up from their number. A most interesting game would result if it is attempted.

A series of games with the local teaar of the Ohlo State League Is be ing planned for the second and third week in April. As several of the games scheduled with college teams have been dropped by the Athletic Committee there is a need of more games to keep the team going good for the hard trip the last week of April.
